

On Legitimacy

M. Serge Losappio, who introduced himself as “Master of the Order of the Knights of Our Lady”, for example with Media-Presse-Info or Civitas, who even call him “Grand-Master”, a title, which our Rule gives to St Michael only, was in fact simply elected Magistral Lieutenant for a period reduced to 3 years on 29 July 2022. The next day, 30 July, on which he took his oath, he committed perjury by gravely violating twice its Constitutions and customs. He then tried to cover this up with an alibi, which was only an implausible lie. Finally, he excluded one by one all those faithful members who had dared to give him a “fraternal correction” (Rule 6:3). In the meantime, he had proclaimed himself Master, imposing his tyrannical authority.

Among us some can testify about what happened in this Order founded in 1945, having known its founder very well and personally since 1958, and particularly about the various crises that it went through: replacement of the head of the Order for deviation in 1955, post-conciliar reform in 1970, sanctions as a result of the “Roman” drift of the SSPX from 2012 onwards. This 2022 usurpation was therefore not a total surprise, even though it was very sad. Thanks be to God, the loyal members are also the most numerous in ten countries around the globe. They grow and multiply with the support of good priests and good bishops. They confirmed the deposition of the intruder and replaced him with a new, perfectly legitimate Magistral Lieutenant, Br. Godofredo Dollera Jr.
